

TASK 2 Research Task:

- Identify THREE settings that provide services to people with mental health issues.
- For each setting identify the service they provide and the professionals who work there (paid and unpaid)

TASK 3: Produce an A3 spider diagram identifying and explain the different techniques people can use to maintain good mental health.

Care for people with learning disabilities is very specialised. People with profound disabilities need to be cared for by highly trained staff.

TASK 4 – Complete the table below:

Which professionals are involved in supporting people with learning disabilities?	What kind of settings provide services for people with disabilities? Name them.

TASK 5: Using the links below find out about learning disabilities. As part of your research gather the following information:

- The number of people in the UK affected by learning disabilities.
- Examples of learning disabilities
- The challenges/difficulties facing people with learning disabilities in accessing health and social care services.
- The support available in health and social care for people with learning disabilities.
